

PM attends inauguration of birth centenary celebration of Nanaji Deshmukh

The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi, today attended the inauguration of the birth centenary celebration of Nanaji Deshmukh at IARI in Pusa in New Delhi.

The Prime Minister visited an exhibition on the theme "technology and rural life." The exhibition showcases good practices and applications, as well as schemes and initiatives of the Ministry of Rural Development. He interacted with some innovators and beneficiaries.

The Prime Minister offered floral tributes to Nanaji Deshmukh and Loknayak Jayaprakash Narayan. He released a commemorative postage stamp on Nanaji Deshmukh. The Prime Minister launched the DISHA Portal - a smart governance tool developed for MPs and MLAs for monitoring of implementation of various Programmes and Schemes of different Ministries in their constituency through a single portal. As on date, integration of datasets of 41 programmes and schemes of 20 Ministries has been achieved on this Portal. He also launched Gram

Samvaad - a citizen centric mobile app to serve and empower the rural citizens of India, by facilitating single window access for citizens to information at Gram Panchayat level, on various Rural Development programs. The App presently covers seven programs of the Ministry of Rural Development. The Prime Minister digitally inaugurated 11 Rural Self Employment Training Institutes (RSETI) Buildings and a Plant Phenomics Facility at IARI. The Prime Minister addressed an audience of over 10,000 people, drawn from Self Help Groups, Panchayats, water conservation innovators, and beneficiaries of Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana. He said that today marks the birth anniversary of two great leaders - Nanaji Deshmukh and Loknayak Jayaprakash Narayan, who devoted their life to the betterment of the nation. The Prime Minister said that Loknayak Jayaprakash Narayan was deeply popular among youth. The likes of Loknayak Jayaprakash Narayan and Dr. Lohia were active during the 'Quit India' movement, inspired by the clarion call of Mahatma Gandhi, he added.

BlindWalk rally on 12th

Ahmedabad, India has the largest number of blind persons. They could receive sight with the help of planting eye cornea. The eye cornea could be easily donated once a person dies. People in general have fear about this sort of donation.

In order to make the ordinary people realize that their eyes could be donated after death and that they could give sight to two other persons, the Diocese of Ahmedabad has planned for a BlindWalk rally in Ahmedabad city on 12th October, 2017 at 10 a.m. This day is dedicated as the World Vision Day. Those taking part in the rally will be blindfolded and will be guided by persons who are physically impaired with vision. Such an exercise will give an understanding of what blind people go through in their daily life and would motivate them to donate their eyes after death. (19-10)
