

How Mahatma Gandhi's ideology is relevant today?

All over India in order to mark the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, Gandhi Jayanti is celebrated with great enthusiasm to pay honor to Mahatma Gandhi who struggled a lot for the Indian independence from the British rule. We all know that the name of Mahatma Gandhi now transcends the bounds of race, religion and nation- states, and has appeared as the visionary voice of the 21st century.

Gandhiji has become a role model and an inspirational leader for the youth now. Other great leaders like Nelson Mandela, James Lawson also admired Gandhi's theory of non-violence for the freedom and liberty. Gandhi did a great work to achieve Swaraj. More than ever before, Gandhiji's teachings are valid today, when people are trying to find solutions to the rampant greed, widespread violence, and runaway consumptive style of living. His ideology is admired throughout the world for its universal and spiritual appeal.

The Gandhian technique of mobilising people has been successfully employed by many oppressed societies around the world under the leadership of people like Martin Luther King Nelson Mandela and many others.

Barack Obama sees Mahatma Gandhi as an inspiration and has a portrait of the apostle of peace in his office. Gandhi had ideas on every subject, from hygiene and nutrition to education and labor, and he relentlessly pursued his ideas in newspaper. He would still be remembered as one of the principal figures in the history of Indian journalism. Mahatma Gandhi's ideology is universal which is relevant for all times. People know very little about his subtly powerful and pragmatic ideology. If his ideology were not effective, the world would not have accorded him the title of Mahatma. Though Mahatma Gandhi's ideas and principles are appraised and accepted by many, they are not free from criticisms. The teachings of Gandhiji are true to the soul and the morality of honesty is to be preached throughout. Whether the teachings are used in present day or not, does not imply that his teachings are irrelevant. The Indian education gives importance to theoretical knowledge and practical knowledge takes a back seat. Gandhiji stressed upon giving practical lessons to the students as he believed that this helps in active participation of the students in the class. We need to make our priority and path clear to march forward. Gandhism is a way of living with simplicity and non-violence. The new generation is waiting for a leader who will make it relearn the moral values, and who will inculcate in the people, as Gandhi did, a sense of the responsibilities which fall on every citizen of a free society. The aim of celebrating Gandhi Jayanti is to distribute Gandhi's philosophy, principles & thoughts of Karamchand Gandhi when the latter was struck down by an assassin's bullet on January 30, 1948. The whole world was shocked, feeling as if another Christ had been nailed to the cross. Such was the impact of Gandhi on the times in which he lived. He was one of the very few who set the stamp of their personalities on an epoch. The unorthodox methods he advocated to tackle the immensely complex problems facing the country and his transparent sincerity struck a responsive chord in the hearts of the common people. The immortal tribute of India's first Prime Minister, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, at the time of Gandhi's passing said, "The light has gone out of our lives".

He inspired millions of people through his work and became a legacy of greatness, idealness, and noble life. Gandhi was a social reformer who died after completing the aim of his life. One should remember that he not only gave freedom to his country, but also brought about a great moral regeneration over his countrymen. Men like Gandhi are born once in an age. Mahatma Gandhi while leading the struggle of the Indian people for independence from the British rule repeatedly emphasized that his ultimate aim was not merely the overthrow of alien rule, but the establishment of swaraj in India. The world community endorses the idea of peaceful resolution of conflict in regional, national and international disputes.

Today communal amity has become essential for national integration and hence Gandhi gave it the highest priority. He wanted to take the country from areas of hostility into areas of harmony of faiths through tolerance, so that we could work towards understanding each other. Generations to come will scarce believe that such a man as this ever walked this earth in flesh and blood". This was the tribute paid by Albert Einstein to Mohandas

Mahatma Gandhi and believe in non-violence around the World. Gandhi's ultimate search was for righteous conduct. The means are more important than the end, he maintained; with the right means, desired ends will follow. Though Mahatma Gandhi's ideas and principles are appraised and accepted by many, they are not free from criticisms. The teachings of Gandhiji are true to the soul and the morality of honesty is to be preached throughout. Whether the teachings are used in present day or not, does not imply that his teachings are irrelevant. Pakistan Takes U-Turn On Saudi; Says Riyadh Won't Be Part Of Key Project

Islamabad: In a U-turn, Pakistan has announced that its close ally Saudi Arabia would not join the over-$50 billion so-called 'China-Pakistan Economic Corridor' or 'CPEC', days after Islamabad said Riyadh will be the third "strategic partner" of China's flagship Belt and Road Initiative project.

The so-called 'CPEC' is the flagship project of the multi-billion dollar Belt and Road Initiative or BRI, a pet project of Chinese President Xi Jinping. The 'CPEC', which passes through Pakistan-occupied Kashmir or PoK, is aimed at connecting China's Xinjiang region with Balochistan's Gwadar Port. The BRI aims to increase China's influence around the world through infrastructure projects funded by Beijing.

Pakistan's Minister for Planning and Development Khuro Bakhtiar told his country's media on Tuesday that the cash-rich kingdom's proposed investments would fall under a separate bilateral arrangement, Pakistan's Dawn news reported.

"Saudi Arabia is not to become a collateral strategic partner in the CPEC. This impression is not true," he said. A third country can participate in the 'China-Pakistan Economic Corridor' by taking part in the business and investment ventures arising out of the project, Mr Bakhtiar said. "The framework between China and Pakistan is bilateral and Saudi Arabia is not entering that framework as a third-party investor, rather the base of the 'CPEC' will be broadened and its pace will be expedited," he said. Last month, Pakistan's Information Minister Fawad Chaudhry said that Saudi Arabia is the third "strategic partner" of the 'CPEC', soon after Imran Khan returned from his first official foreign visit to the kingdom. Interestingly Mr Chaudhry was sitting with Mr Bakhtiar when he issued clarification that Saudi Arabia participation in the 'CPEC' was not as third partner in the project.

IBSAMAR-VI kicks off at Simons Town, South Africa

The sixth edition of IBSAMAR, a joint Multi-National Maritime Exercise between the Indian, Brazilian and South African Navies, is being held at Simons Town, South Africa from 01 - 13 Oct 18. The last edition of IBSAMAR (IBSAMAR V) was conducted off Goa, from 19 - 26 Feb 16. The aim of the exercise is to undertake collective training for participating navies, building interoperability and mutual understanding as well as sharing of best practices.

The exercise includes both harbour and sea phases with various navigation and seamanship evolutions, surface weapons firing, force protection exercises, anti-air and anti-submarine exercise as well as flying operations. Apart from professional activities, sports and social engagements are also planned.

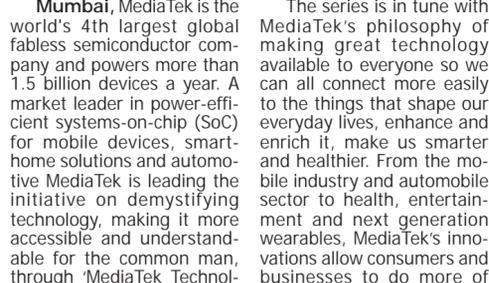

The Indian Navy is represented in IBSAMAR VI by Guided Missile Frigate Tarkash, Guided Missile Destroyer Kolkata, Long Range Maritime Patrol Aircraft P81, Seaking and Chetak helicopters as well as a MARCOS contingent. The Commanding Officers of the IN Ships called on the Chief of Fleet Staff of the SA Navy as well as a few other senior officers and the Magistrate and the Commissioner of Simon's Town. A reception was hosted onboard the Brazilian naval ship BNS Barraso in the evening.

Mayawati dumps Congress ahead of Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh polls, says party wants to 'destroy BSP'

Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP) chief Mayawati on Wednesday said her party would contest the upcoming Assembly elections in Madhya Pradesh and Rajasthan alone and accused the Congress of trying to "destroy" BSP through a mahagathbandhan (grand alliance).

She said the Congress, despite support from the Dalits and backward sections of the society, has a casteist and communal mindset like BJP. It has not worked for development for these sections of the society," Mayawati said at a press conference.

Mayawati also added that Rahul and Sonia Gandhi were ready for an "acceptable alliance" but other Congress leaders were unwilling. "Congress leaders like Digvijaya Singh do not wish for a Congress-BSP alliance. They are afraid of agencies like ED and CBI," ANI quoted Mayawati as saying.

"Digvijaya, who is also a BJP agent, is giving statements that Mayawati ji is under a lot of pressure from the Centre, so she doesn't want this alliance. This is baseless," she added.

The BSP chief said there was no truth to rumours of her party trying to ruin plans of a grand alliance. "The truth is that the Congress, through this mahagathbandhan, wants to destroy BSP. This means that the Congress, despite support from the Dalits and backward sections of the society, has a casteist and communal mindset like BJP. It has not worked for development for these sections of the society," Mayawati said at a press conference.

The BSP chief made it clear that her party will fight the upcoming elections in Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh either on its own or with local parties' support. "Our party will not fight any elections with Congress at any cost," she said.

"Congress' objective is not to defeat BJP but to target its allies... Congress is facing the results of its actions but is not improving its policies," she also said.

Commenting on the health insurance study, Vaidyanathan Ramani, Head of Product & Innovation Centre (PIC), Policybazaar.com, said, "Healthcare costs are rising at an astronomical rate. Today, any lifestyle disease treatment costs anywhere between Rs 3-10 lakh in a decent private hospital in the urban areas. As such, what was a Rs 2-lakh average health cover bought two-years back has become a Rs 5-lakh cover today. With growing awareness around the need for having a health cover and understanding of the existing treatment costs in hospitals, we expect the Indian consumer to opt for an even bigger umbrella to ensure a better protection for their family over the next few years."

40% Indians Buying Health Insurance Online

Nearly four out of ten Indians purchasing health insurance online prefer a minimum cover of Rs. 5 Lakh, a study by Policybazaar.com Product & Innovation Centre (PIC) study has revealed. The study took into account buying behaviour of 10,000+ consumers purchasing health insurance online across 20 states.

The study also indicated that Indian consumers have a preference for either buying Rs 5 lakh cover online, or if they are buying lesser or higher cover, then they have a preference for Rs. 3 lakh or Rs. 10 lakh cover. While nearly 22% of consumers surveyed opted for Rs. 3 lakh cover, Rs 10 lakh cover was opted by more than 12% of this survey audience. (19-10)

Rupee hits record low of 73.34 against US dollar

The rupee dropped to a record low on Wednesday as a sharp rise in global crude oil prices heaped more pressure on the currency, prompting the central bank to quickly intervene to slow its fall. The partially convertible rupee hit 73.4050 per dollar in early trade, an all-time low, and sharply lower than its previous close of 72.91.

Markets were closed on Tuesday for a holiday. The Reserve Bank of India stepped into the market to sell dollars, helping the rupee retrace to as much as 73.23 to the dollar. The 10-year bond yield was up 7 basis points at 8.06 percent. The pace of fall in the rupee starts to accelerate as the depreciation matures," said Anindya Banerjee, deputy vice president, currency derivatives at Kotak Securities.

"The RBI is intervening more in the currency derivatives market through forwards and futures than in the spot market."

Indian stocks were also down dragged by financials and auto stocks such as ICICI Bank Ltd and Eicher Motors Ltd.
